Game

Carol Wakeman

The Tennis Club table featured great photos of Towerpoint circa 1977 and the courts circa 1982; chocolate candy - always an attraction; and, a guessing game. Forty-seven (47) brave people of all ages guessed how many tennis balls were contained in a large mesh bag. The winner, after consultation with husband Jack, with the exact number, was Carol Wakemen. Henry Dumas was second - one number off, two people tied for third place - two numbers off - June Duck and Joe Stastny.

Prizes included gift certificates to RaVe's Coffee Shop or Cactus Grill, cans of tennis balls and candy for energy.
